Introduction

As Directors, our key responsibility is to promote the success of the Company. This principle is the cornerstone of our discussions and decision making. Each Director is cognisant that in discharging this key responsibility, they must have regard to matters set out in s172(1)(a-f) of the Companies' Act. The Directors consider, both individually and collectively, that they have acted in the way they consider, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the Company.

Our strategy

The Board is responsible for a number of key strategic decisions and on-going performance monitoring. In doing so, the Board assesses and manages core risks to the business and considers the long-term sustainability of the business model.

Board information

The Board receives information on a range of relevant topics and receives information on other areas as requested by the Directors from time to time.

Our policies and practices

All relevant factors are appropriately addressed by the Board when considering matters reserved for it. It ensures that all relevant considerations to assist it discharge its responsibilities are embedded in the key operations of the business, in order to help promote the long-term success of the Company.

Training

To assist the Directors discharge their responsibilities, they are provided with on-going training and development opportunities. They have received a number of in-depth briefings on specific relevant issues. For the wider workforce, there is a comprehensive staff development programme tailored to meet individual needs. Elements of this training are mandatory, with all staff required to successfully complete e-learning modules on key areas such as money laundering, bribery and corruption, data protection, fraud and cyber risk.

Our culture

Building and maintaining the Company's reputation and its high standards of business conduct are essential to the future success of the Company. This is embedded in our culture. Although the Company has no employees, the wider workforce of Brit Group Services Limited is subject to 'Code of Conduct' setting out the standard we expect from all of our staff. This is regularly reviewed and updated, and compliance is attested to by each employee on an annual basis.

Our stakeholders

The Board recognises the importance of engaging with its broader stakeholder base. The Company's primary stakeholder is its sole shareholder, Brit Insurance Holdings Limited. The Board is also mindful of the interests of the wider Brit Limited group.

Key decisions made by the Directors during the year

The principal decision made by the Directors during the year was to maintain its current strategy of writing insurance business on behalf of Brit's underwriting entities and its generation of commission income therefrom. In arriving at this decision, the Directors considered the Company's immediate and longer-term strategic priorities, together with the needs and expectations of its key stakeholders.

On 1 August 2023, the Board approved the 2022 financial statements of Brit Insurance Services Limited.
